William Allen "Billy" Thompson, a member of Post 1, served in the Army National Guard from 1969-1975. Billy is a native of Greenville, South Carolina, and played college football at Maryland State College. After playing his last college game, the All Star Game for College Graduates, he became a second round draft pick by the Broncos coach Lou Saban in 1969.

While practicing his first season, two Military Police personnel showed up on the practice field and were ready to take Billy into custody for not registering for the draft. Coach Saban stepped in and negotiated a deal that would allow Billy to complete his first season with the understanding that after the season he would report to the Army for induction.

In late November 1969, Billy reported to Fort Ord for basic training, tired and battered and bruised from a grueling season as a rookie. But did the Army care? No, he was nothing but a lowly recruit in basic training. Billy excelled at Fort Ord and was selected as the Basic Training Outstanding Training Leader for the 4th Platoon and thereby the Platoon Leader. One of his most cherished experiences was this selection and all of his accomplishments on the field of baseball and football were thus secondary to the recognition he received from his fellow recruits. He speaks proudly of this accomplishment and the pride instilled in him through the Army basic training program.

Billy Thompson

In his rookie season, 1969, he led the league in punts and kickoff returns and was the starting cornerback for the Denver Broncos. Thompson was a three-time Pro Bowl selection and was inducted into the Broncos Ring of Fame in 1987. Thompson played his entire 13-year career for the Denver Broncos from 1969-1981. During his career he was selected to the three Pro Bowls in 1977, 1978, and 1981 and was an All-Pro selection in 1977. He is currently third on the Broncos all-time list for games started with 179, and holds the club record for interception return yards at 784.

Billy is currently the Director of Community Outreach for the Denver Broncos.

When interviewing him, he was silent about his accomplishments on the football field. Like so many other veterans, all of his sports accomplishments are secondary to his accomplishments in the Army National Guard and having the opportunity to serve his country and represent the U.S. Army.

Bicycles For The Second Chance Bicycle Shop

Post 1 is still collecting bikes for the Second Chance Bicycle Shop. The American Legion Post 1 supports the shop and is planning a bike collection day sometime in the near future. We hope to establish a date sometime in late July.

During a recent neighborhood cleanup day, plus a neighborhood garage sale, members of this Post collected bikes for Second Chance. A message was posted on the Next-door neighborhood website asking for bikes, and through this posting, 19 bikes were collected for the shop.

The bikes will be repaired by young people performing community service, and given to veterans and their families, and others needing a bike, based on their ability to pay. Each young man or woman working to complete their community service will receive a bike at the completion of their service.

It's a great program and if you know of anyone that wants to donate a used bike, please bring it into the Post and we'll make sure it gets to is grateful for the support given to his organization by the American Legion Post 1.

Attention All Legion Family Members

BICYCLE COLLECTION AT THE POST

Saturday, August 26 • 9 a.m. - 2 p.m.

If you have a bicycle just sitting around collecting dust, consider donating it to "Second Chance Bicycle Shop" by just dropping it off at Post 1. This is the shop run by Ernie Clark, who received the 40/8 "Citizen of the Year" award in 2016. He collects bicycles no longer being used, fixes them and gives them to those who do not have one.

Bicycles can be in any shape or size and bicycle parts are also appreciated. If you have any questions, you may call Ernie at 720-270-5731.

Commander's Corner

by Commander Tom Yagley

What does one say other than thank you for the support and electing me as your LCW Post 1 Commander. The next is the obvious and deservedly so; congratulations to our now Past Commander Anthony Jones for two years of impressive leadership. The bar is set high, I am looking forward to working with the Legion Family as we advance and grow our organization. Our Legion Agenda will continue to emphasize and strengthen our support of Veterans and our Troops.

We will continue with the excellent Veteran support provided by Project Sanctuary.

May Election results are listed elsewhere in this edition. I am pleased to share my committee chairman appointments for this year:

Service Officer – Dick Hassell; Post Chaplain – John Holland; Historian – Will Webb; Sue Wagner will continue as our outstanding Bar Manager.

Americanism – Clotilde Szelkowski; Boys State and Oratorical – Will Webb; Child & Welfare – Will Webb.

House and Planning – Chris Nepute will temporarily chair this position. I will continue to pursue within LCW1 an appointment for House Chair for this Legion year.

Following the Installation June 13 I have used the expression, “here we go.” Translation, let’s have a most productive and a fun year.

God Bless everyone at LCW1, all the American Legions, God Bless our troops everywhere, remember our MIAs, and may God continue to bless the United States of America.

Thank you.

Post 1 Commander Tom Yagley with his son Nick Yagley, SAL Jr. Vice Commander.

ATTENTION!

All American Legion Baseball Fans

by Ron Ice

Thanks to everyone for your continued support of our Eaglecrest LCW Post 1 Raptors!

The season is off to a good start, with even more exciting games to come during July.

Please be sure to check the schedule on the Post bulletin board or the message board in the bar area.

For those who would like to attend a game without the hassle of driving, we are considering using the 40/8 van for transportation to an upcoming “HOME” game. If interested, please leave your name and phone number with me, the bartender, or the front office.

Also, thanks in advance for your cash donations to the Baseball Fund jars located on the shelves behind the bar. Your contributions are sincerely appreciated and will help our youth baseball team. The service branch donating the most money to this fundraiser will receive recognition and their name plate will be added to the existing plaque, which is next to the bar. The Army received the recognition for the past two years.

No matter who gets recognized let’s all support our youth baseball program. Go Raptors!

Closing remarks. This last Legion year was interesting and very productive. With the support from the Commander and all the Legion family we accomplished everything scheduled, plus numerous “we can do that.”

“Comedy night was a success” is an understatement. Organized by Kipp Klupacs, this was a great fundraiser for Colorado Bike MS. Hats off with applause to those who braved the lights — our very own Barb Aaker, Bill Wells, Heather Mulqueen, and funny guy Kipp. Huge thank you to the kitchen crew Spencer, Rick, Nick, Chris N, also Vickie, Ashley and Ellen. And of course, the lighting and sound master designer, Chris Mulqueen.

Memories Flourish At The Wall

Clotilde Szelkowski remembers John Souther as an “all-around wonderful person” who could be a fun-loving prankster with a serious side.

Souther’s memory is what motivated Szelkowski to make the trip from Colorado to Washington, D.C., for Memorial Day commemorations at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial.

“The ultimate sacrifice my brothers and sisters paid is what brings me out today,” said Szelkowski, a member of Post 1 in Denver. “I don’t remember when (Souther) was killed. I don’t want to remember. I just know he’s on the Wall, and he is probably the No. 1 reason. But the others are the No. 1.1 reason. None of them are any more important than the others.”

Szelkowski, who served as a Navy corpsman, visited Souther’s name on the Wall. “I try to remember when we were kids because that’s when I knew him. Otherwise I totally break down.”

This year marks the 35th anniversary of the Wall. During the Memorial Day Observance at the Wall ceremony on Monday, American Legion National Vice Commander Paul Esponiza laid a wreath on behalf of the nation’s largest veterans organization.

President's Report

by Teri Mercill

In true Auxiliary fashion (under my watch at least), Unit 1 officers invested ourselves during the Post investiture ceremony on June 13. There were a few gaffs on my part, but our hearts are in the right place, and we got the job done. We'll look forward to serving our respective offices beginning in September 2017.

Even though there are no Auxiliary meetings in July or August, Unit 1 Auxiliary will have some upcoming events. Look for information regarding a community-wide Post Flea Market/Garage Sale on Saturday, July 29. This event will be spearheaded by Heather Mulqueen. Karen Taylor will organize an Oktoberfest celebration at the Post sometime in September. Information will be posted.

Unit 1 had a banner year; where we raised close to $12,000 for local and national veteran and Auxiliary organizations. In 2017-2018, we'll be working hard to exceed this number.

Flea Market/Garage Sale Saturday, July 29 • 10 a.m.-4 p.m.

Unit 1 will be coordinating a Legion-wide, neighborhood-wide Flea Market/Garage Sale. The date will be Saturday, July 29 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

If you are interested in helping or having a table, check at the Post for more details. Call the office 303-757-1919 or email adjutant@lcwpost1.org.

UPCOMING BIRTHDAYS

Let Us Help You Celebrate

On the second Monday of every month, we celebrate the birthdays for all of our Legion family members. We especially want to include YOU if it is your birthday month.

Many people are already on our birthday lists as listed in The Reveille, but it is not automatically recorded with your membership. There is a notebook by the sign-in book to list your name and month only of your birthday (no day or year requested), so please be sure you are included and come so we can share a piece of birthday cake and a chance for the $10 cash drawing among the birthday month's participants. See you there on July 10 at 6 p.m.
