SPECIAL CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION EDITION

Greetings To All Legionnaires And Happy Birthday American Legion

On March 15 and through March 17, 1919, one hundred years ago, members of the American Expeditionary Force convened in Paris, France, for the first American Legion caucus. Over the next six months, veterans labored at the work of planning and establishing the American Legion as an organization that would be dedicated to God and Country.

Just a few of the accomplishments during the first six months included adoption of "The American Legion" as the organization's official name, drafting and approving the preamble and constitution, adopting the Legion emblem, and persuading Congress to charter The American Legion. Our forefathers envisioned The American Legion as a patriotic, mutual-help organization for wartime veterans.

The Reveille has been a part of American Legion Post 1, which was established in Colorado during the first year after the chartering of a National American Legion. American Legion Post 1 has been a part of the history of both the State of Colorado Legion Posts and the National American Legion. In this special edition of The Reveille, the history of both National and Colorado Post 1 is chronicled.

The Leyden-Chiles-Wickersham American Legion Post 1 continues to have a significant role in the work that was started 100 years ago. This Post has seen so many changes over the past 100 years, from such actions of closing the Post building on Broadway and moving several times to our current location. Over these years, Post 1 members have continued to support Youth Baseball, Boys and Girls State, Oratorical, community service, etc.

With participation and support from our members, we will strive to continue the work that was set forth before us 100 years ago and expanded over those years. The future of the American Legion remains in our hands and in our hearts. Let us keep the four pillars, written into our constitution in 1919, always in mind: Veterans Affairs and Rehabilitation, National Security, Americanism, and Children And Youth.

Thank you to the Centennial Committee — Georgia Sweeney, Edrie O'Brien, Marilyn Vroman, Deb Davis our Department Historian, and Chairman Patrick Burch.

With love and admiration for the Commanders, Officers, Staff, and Legion members before us, thank you.

THE AMERICAN LEGION 1919-2019

The American Legion was chartered by Congress in 1919 as a patriotic veteran's organization. Focusing on service to veterans, servicemembers and communities, the Legion evolved from a group of war-weary veterans of World War I into one of the most influential nonprofit groups in the United States. Membership swiftly grew to over 1 million, and local posts sprang up across the country. Today, membership stands at nearly 2 million in more than 13,000 posts worldwide. The posts are organized into 55 departments: one each for the 50 states, along with the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, France, Mexico and the Philippines. Over the years, the Legion has influenced considerable social change in America, won hundreds of benefits for veterans and produced many important programs for children and youth.

Hundreds of local American Legion programs and activities strengthen the nation one community at a time. American Legion Baseball is one of the nation's most successful amateur athletic programs, educating young people about the importance of sportsmanship, citizenship and fitness. The Operation Comfort Warriors program supports recovering wounded warriors and their families, providing them with "comfort items" and the kind of support that makes a hospital feel a little bit more like home. The Legion also raises millions of dollars in donations at the local, state and national levels to help veterans and their families during times of need and to provide college scholarship opportunities.

The American Legion is a nonpartisan, not-for-profit organization with great political influence perpetuated by its grassroots involvement in the legislation process from local districts to Capitol Hill. Legionnaires' sense of obligation to community, state and nation drives an honest advocacy for veterans in Washington. The Legion stands behind the issues most important to the nation's veterans' community, backed by resolutions passed by volunteer leadership.

The American Legion's success depends entirely on active membership, participation and volunteerism. The organization belongs to the people it serves and the communities in which it thrives.

100 Year Old Pillars Remain The Foundation Of This Veterans Organization

In 1919 The American Legion was founded on four pillars. Many Legion Family members know that the pillars are: I. Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation, II. National Security, III. Americanism, IV. Children & Youth. But how many members know what programs are included in those pillars? The programs under these pillars are:

I. Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation

- Access to VA Care
- Better Funding Formula
- Support for Veterans with Special Needs
- Career Opportunities
- A GI Bill for a New Century
- Employment and Business
- Heroes to Hometowns
- Volunteering
- Final Respects

II. National Security

- Strong National Defense
- Military Quality of Life
- Homeland Security
- Foreign Relations
- Full Accounting of POW/MIAs
- Operation Comfort Warriors

III. Americanism

- Flag Protection
- Illegal Immigration
- Voter Registration and Participation
- Boy Scouts
- The Pledge of Allegiance
- Establishment-Clause Lawsuits

IV. Children & Youth

- Child Pornography (TAL opposes attempts to weaken U.S. laws governing the production, sale and distribution of pornographic materials.)
- Catastrophic Illness (TAL supports legislation to financially assist families facing the catastrophic illness of a child.)
- Intellectual Disabilities (TAL supports continuing research in this area.)
- Immunization
- Family Integrity
- Media Violence
- Drug Abuse

- Child Sexual Exploitation (TAL supports legislation aimed at prevention of, as well as investigation and prosecution of child sexual exploitation.)

The American Legion's positions and programs are guided by resolutions passed at Legion National Conventions. These are the programs that allow The American Legion to make a difference. It's who we are.

To learn more about these programs and to read complete explanations of each one, check out the pamphlets on the website at www.legion.org/national/documents.

LEYDEN-CHILES-WICKERSHAM POST 1

Leyden-Chiles-Wickersham Post 1 is named in honor of three WWI veterans who made the "supreme sacrifice" fighting for our nation. These heroes of WWI are Leo Thomas Leyden, Marcellus Holmes Chiles and John Hunter Wickersham.

Leo Thomas Leyden was the first Denver man to be killed in action. He was born in Denver and lived here most of his life. He enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps July 1, 1917. The ship he was on to Europe was attacked by a German submarine. Fortunately, the attack failed, and the sub was instead destroyed. Leyden saw action in France in the spring of 1918 near Verdun. Leyden was the victim of a gas attack, which fortunately he survived. He then helped repulse the German assault on Paris. Leyden distinguished himself on June 6, 1918, when he rescued wounded comrade Robert Graf, also from Denver. On June 15, 1918, Leyden was killed by artillery. He is now buried in Crown Hill Cemetery, Denver.

Marcellus Holmes Chiles was born in Eureka Springs, Arkansas, to John Horne Chiles. He later moved to Denver, Colorado, where his father worked as a lawyer. He was a student at Colorado College when World War I began. After attending an officers' training camp, he was appointed a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army in August 1917.

Promoted to first lieutenant in January 1918, Chiles was sent to Europe with the 356th Infantry Regiment, 89th Division, later that year. He first saw action at the Saint-Mihiel salient in northeast France in August 1918. On November 3, four days after be-

About This Post

Post Namesake

The Leyden, Chiles and Wickersham American Legion Posts consolidated and Leyden-Chiles-Wickersham Post 1 was chartered on August 20, 1931 in loving memory of Private Leo T. Leyden, Captain Marcellus H. Chiles and Lieutenant J. Hunter Wickersham, all of whom gave their lives for their country.

Notable Members

The first Commanders of L.C.W. Posts were Daniel Sparr, Leo Leyden Post #1, Harold Healy, Marcellus H. Chiles Post #41 and Bill Rathbun, J. Hunter Wickersham Post # 51. In 1930 Kenaz Huffman, a member of Wickersham Post since its inception, was elected to serve as the first Commander of the Department of Colorado American Legion Posts.

What Makes This Post Unique

J. Hunter Wickersham Post #51 was organized October 18, 1919, at the home of W. S. (Bill) Rathbun with 27 charter members. In 1921 and 1922 many small Legion Posts found the going tough and early in 1923 the following six Posts; Proctor, Preston, Hewitt, Steele, Rickard and Sharp abandoned their charters and joined forces with the Marcellus H. Chiles Legion Post #41 and became known as Columbine Post #41. In 1925 Post #41 restored the name Marcellus H. Chiles.

ing promoted to captain, Chiles participated in an advance near Le Champy Bas as part of the Meuse-Argonne Offensive. In command of a battalion, he oversaw an attack against a large German force, leading his men through a waist-deep stream despite intense machine gun fire. Wounded during the water crossing, Chiles continued to crawl after his troops after reaching the stream bank. After turning over command of the battalion, he was evacuated to a hospital, where he died on November 5. For these actions, he received the Distinguished Service Cross; the award was upgraded to the Medal of Honor the next year.

Chiles, aged 23 at his death, is buried at the Meuse-Argonne American Cemetery near Romagne-sous-Montfaucon, France.

John Hunter Wickersham was born in Brooklyn, New York, on February 3, 1890, to Mary E. Damon. He moved to Denver, Colorado, when a small boy and received his education in Denver. In May 1917, he graduated from the First Officers Training Camp at Camp Funston on Fort Riley, Kansas. He was commissioned a Second Lieutenant and assigned to Company H, 353rd Infantry, 89th Division. By September 11, 1918, he was serving in France. On that day, as his unit prepared to take part in an offensive which would become the Battle of Saint-Mihiel, Wickersham wrote one last letter home to his mother in Denver. The letter contained a poem, "The Raindrops on Your Old Tin Hat," which was later published.

The next day, on September 12, Wickersham was severely wounded near Limey, France, but continued to lead his platoon in its advance until collapsing and succumbing to his injuries. For these actions, he was posthumously awarded the Medal of Honor in 1919. Wickersham's heroic conduct was listed by General John J. "Black Jack" Pershing as one of the "100 Most Heroic Acts of World War I." Lt. Wickersham now rests in the American cemetery in Thiaucourt, France. A marker in his memory was placed at Fairmount Cemetery in Denver, Colorado.

Lt. John Hunter Wickersham's Medal Of Honor Citation Reads As Follows:

For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity above and beyond the call of duty in action with the enemy near Limey, France, Sept. 12, 1918. Advancing with his platoon during the St. Mihiel offensive, Lt. Wickersham was severely wounded in four places by the bursting of a high explosive shell. Before receiving any aid for himself, he dressed the wound of his orderly, who was wounded at the same time. He then ordered and accompanied the further advance of his platoon although weakened by the loss of blood. His right hand and arm being disabled by wounds, he continued to fire his revolver with his left hand until exhausted by the loss of blood. He fell and died from his wounds before aid could be administered.

Second Annual State Convention held in Boulder, Colorado, Sept. 1-2, 1920.

The Eighteenth Amendment (Amendment XVIII) of the United States Constitution established the prohibition of "intoxicating liquors" in the United States. The amendment was proposed by Congress on December 18, 1917, and was ratified by the requisite number of states on January 16, 1919.

The Eighteenth Amendment was the product of decades of efforts by the temperance movement, which held that a ban on the sale of alcohol would ameliorate poverty and other societal issues. The Eighteenth Amendment declared the production, transport, and sale of intoxicating liquors illegal, though it did not outlaw the actual consumption of alcohol. Shortly after the amendment was ratified, Congress passed the Volstead Act to provide for the federal enforcement of Prohibition. The Volstead Act declared that liquor, wine, and beer all qualified as intoxicating liquors and were therefore prohibited. Under the terms of the Eighteenth Amendment, Prohibition began on January 17, 1920, one year after the amendment was ratified.

Although the Eighteenth Amendment led to a decline in alcohol consumption in the United States, nationwide enforcement of Prohibition proved difficult, particularly in cities. Organized crime and other groups engaged in large-scale bootlegging, and speakeasies became popular in many areas.

We're having a party! Join us at LCW Post 1 "SPEAKEASY." Come dressed in your short, low-waisted dresses and revealing styles worn by your Flapper friends, the "bobbed" hairstyles, cloche hats, the casual, haphazard fashion of a

GOD BLESS OUR VETERANS

FROM YOUR LCW POST 1 COLOR GUARD

Greetings And Congratulations To The American Legion On Celebrating 100 Years Of Service To Veterans, Active Military, And Communities. If We All Keep Doing Our Part, The Next Century Will Be More Successful Than The First.

In honoring our fathers, grandfathers, mothers and grandmothers who serve or served this great nation, the Sons of The American Legion Squadron 1 congratulate The American Legion for 100 years of service to our Veterans and Communities.

A Brief History Of The American Legion LCW Post 1

The following is a brief history of LCW Post 1. A library of historical pictures can be found on our website www.LCWPost1.org.

On March 20, 1919, (just three days after the adjournment of the Legion founding caucus in Paris, France) a group of Denver Veterans organized the Leo Leyden Post of World War I Veterans to honor the first Colorado hero to pay the "supreme sacrifice." This group became the first Legion Post in Colorado and the 15th to be chartered in the United States. The charter is dated June 17, 1919, and was signed by 30 members. This charter now hangs in the Post Commander's office.

J. Hunter Wickersham Post #51 was organized October 18, 1919, at the home of W.S. (Bill) Rathbun with 27 charter members. In 1921, and 1922 many small Legion Posts found the going tough and early in 1923 the following six Posts: Proctor, Preston, Hewitt, Steele, Rickard and Sharp; abandoned their charters and joined forces with the Marcellus H. Chiles Legion Post #41 and became known as Columbine Post #41. In 1925 Post #41 restored the name Marcellus H. Chiles.

The Leyden, Chiles and Wickersham American Legion Posts consolidated and Leyden-Chiles-Wickersham Post 1 was chartered on August 20, 1931, in loving memory of Private Leo T. Leyden, Captain Marcellus H. Chiles and Lieutenant J. Hunter Wickersham, all of whom gave their lives for their country.

Woodrow Wilson was President of the United States; Oliver R. Shoup was Governor of Colorado; W.F.R. Mills was filling out the unexpired term of the late Bob Speer, as Mayor of Denver; and Ben Stapleton was the Postmaster. There were no sales taxes, social security taxes, income tax deductions, bank service charges, radios, movie pictures, parking meters, or air mail. Stapleton Airfield was just a prairie farm; and the popular automobiles of the day were the Essex, Paige, Durrant, Maxwell, Pierce Arrow, Willys Knight and the Franklin. Harry Truman was getting out of the service and looking for a place to "light."

The first Commanders of L.C.W. Posts were: Daniel Sparr, Leo Leyden Post #1; Harold Healy, Marcellus H. Chiles Post #41; and Bill Rathbun, J. Hunter Wickersham Post #51. In 1930 Kenaz Huffman, a member of Wickersham Post since its inception, was elected to serve as the first Commander of the Department of Colorado American Legion Posts.

First Post Home

Our first Post home was located at 224 W. Colfax Avenue, the palatial home of socialite Eleanor Young. Unfortunately, the building had to be razed to make room for the new City and County building. A very highly discussed topic in the 1920s was the consolidation of small Posts and on October 14, 1930, the merger of Leyden-Chiles-Wickersham and Acacia Legion Posts was finalized in the auditorium of the Continental Oil Building. While Post meetings were held there, the Post offices were housed in the Tabor Building until 1934 when they were moved to the Fraternal Building at 14th Street and Glenarm Place.

The first annual meeting of Gold Star Mothers was held on June 14, 1931. The first annual Post picnic was held on July 17, 1933, and in November 1934 "The Last Squad" was organized with 1,600 members. The first three day Armistice Day party was held in November 1937, and the July 4th "Salute to America" was inaugurated in 1939.

17th Avenue Post Home

The outstanding event of the 1930s was the acquisition of the 17th Avenue Community Church as a permanent home.

We purchased the building for $11,900 and spent $25,000 for remodeling before dedication ceremonies were held on November 7, 1935.

14th And Broadway Post

A movement for a new building began in 1945, and in August 1950 we broke ground for an elaborate Post home at E. 14th Ave. and Broadway. The cornerstone was set in April 1951, and dedication ceremonies were held on February 23, 1952, with National Commander Donald R. Wilson officiating.

The summer of 1954 we became known as the "World's Largest American Legion Post" and boasted a membership of 11,118 members. Omaha, Nebraska, Post #1 was also in contention for this honor.

E. Alameda Avenue And Leetsdale Drive Post

When the State of Colorado acquired our Broadway home for its Judicial Building, we were once again forced to look for a permanent home. Our quest brought us to our location at E. Alameda Avenue and Leetsdale Drive. Dedication of this building was held in 1971.

After 22 years in our Post at 4500 East Alameda Avenue, we decided to sell our property and purchase a one level building. We moved out of the old Post in September of 1993 and were in temporary quarters until September of 1994.

Current Post Home

On Labor Day weekend, September 3rd and 4th, 1994, we had the Grand Opening of our new facility at 5400 East Yale Avenue in Denver. After 22 years in Arapahoe County we are now in Denver County and enjoying our new Post home. Our current membership does not qualify us as the "world's largest" Post any longer, but we are proud of the fact that we are the largest in Colorado.

The Raindrops On Your Old Tin Hat

The mist hangs low and quiet on a ragged line of hills,
There's a whispering of wind across the flat,
You'd be feeling kind of lonesome if it wasn't for one thing —
The patter of the raindrops on your old tin hat.

An' you can't help a-figuring — sitting there alone —
About this war and hero stuff and that,
And you wonder if they haven't sort of got things twisted up,
While the rain keeps up its patter on your old tin hat.

When you step off with the outfit to do your little bit
You're simply doing what you're s'posed to do —
And you don't take time to figure what you gain or lose —
It's the spirit of the game that brings you through.

But back at home she's waiting, writing cheerful little notes,
And every night she offers up a prayer
And just keeps on a-hoping that her soldier boy is safe —
The Mother of the boy who's over there.

And fellows, she's the hero of this great, big ugly war,
And her prayer is on the wind across the flat,
And don't you reckon maybe it's her tears, and not the rain,
That's keeping up the patter on your old tin hat?

Written on September 11, 1918, by Denver resident, J. Hunter Wickersham, age 28, Second Lieutenant, U.S. Army, Company H, 353rd Infantry, 89th Division, the day his unit prepared to take part in an offensive which would become the Battle of Saint-Mihiel. It was included in a letter he sent to his Mother that day.

Over 100 years ago, the United States mobilized 4.7 million doughboys, marines, sailors and for the first time, women in uniform, to help "make the world safe for democracy." The U.S. World War I Centennial Commission was created by an Act of Congress in 2013 to commemorate the Centennial of World War I (WWI). The WWI Centennial Commission has set up a special landing page for veterans and military service organizations and their communities at www.ww1cc.org/veterans.
